DETAILED ACTION

Status of the Claims

Claims 1-26 are pending in this application and are the subject of this office action.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-13, drawn to a medical article, classified as class 424, and subclass 9.411. If this Group is elected, then the below Summarized Species Election will also be required.
- II. Claims 14-26, drawn to method for fabricating a medical article, classified as class 424, subclass 9.411. If this Group is elected, then the below Summarized Species Election is also required.

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed are distinct because the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. Specifically, invention II may be used to practice a materially different process e.g. a process for making tablets comprising a biodegradable polymeric tablet for oral administration.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above, coupled with the fact that the generic inventions encompass multiple possible ingredients, there would be a serious burden on the examiner if the inventions were to be searched together. Thus, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Election of Species regarding Groups I-II

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic Inventions that would require an unduly extensive and burdensome search by the examiner if all the claimed species were examined together.

For example, inventions I-II encompass multiple different chemical compounds, which would reasonably exhibit different pharmacodynamic and treatment effects depending on the specific combination a fluorinated polymer and biologically beneficial polymer employed. Thus, a serious search burden would be created if all the species were to be searched together. Thus, applicant is required to elect a single disclosed specific combination of a) fluorinated polymer e.g. perfluorobutenyl vinyl ether, and b) biologically beneficial polymer e.g. rapamycin, or mixtures thereof, for examination purposes.

If applicant elects a compound of a specific general formula e.g. $-[M-P]_m-[M-Q]_n$, then applicant is required to provide, for example, a single specifically defined compound wherein all the variables are defined i.e. M, P, m, Q, and n.

Under 35 U.S.C. 121, applicant is required to elect a single disclosed composition for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 18, 31, 32, 33, and 36 are considered generic to the above listed species.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Inventorship Notice

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder.

Art Unit: 1614

All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
